Cookies policy

In compliance with the duty of information contained in section 2 of article 22 of Law 34/2002, of July 11, on Services of the Society of the Information and Electronic Commerce, the purpose of this cookie policy is to inform you clearly and precisely about the cookies used in the website of LASUS MARSA, SA.

What are cookies?

A cookie is a small file that websites send to the browser and download to your computer. Cookies allow the website store and retrieve information about your visit, such as your preferred language and other options, in order to improve the services offered and contribute to have a better browsing experience for the user.

Types of cookies

Depending on who manages the domain from where the cookies are sent and the data is processed, a distinction will be made between own cookies and third-party cookies.

Cookies can also be classified according to the period of time that they remain stored in the user's browser, distinguishing between cookies of session or persistent cookies.

Finally, depending on the purpose for which the information collected is processed, cookies can be classified into the following categories:

- Technical cookies: they allow the user to browse a website and use some of the services offered by it (such as, for example, those that they serve to remember the elements of a shopping cart).
- Personalization cookies: they allow the user to access the website with certain characteristics, such as the language.
- Security cookies: they serve to prevent or hinder attacks against the website.
- Complement cookies to exchange social content: so-called plug-ins, which allow content to be shared on social networks.
- Analysis cookies: allow the person in charge to monitor user behavior.
- Advertising cookies: they allow you to manage the advertising spaces on the website.
- Behavioral advertising cookies: like the previous ones, they are used to manage the advertising spaces of the website based on the information collected on the behavior of the user and their habits, adapting the advertising to the user's profile.
- Geolocation cookies: used to find out the country where the user is.

Authorization for the use of cookies

In accordance with the cookie notice that appears on the website, the user can expressly consent to the use of cookies that require consent;

However, the use of technical or necessary cookies does not require consent. Without prejudice to all this, the user can modify the configuration of his browser to reject the use of cookies.
